

Solution: These are, without exception, inappropriate inquiries, a phrase which here means “all the wrong questions”. Here are the questions you should have asked instead:

- (a) Why would someone say something was stolen when it was never theirs to begin with?
- (b) How could someone who was missing be in two places at once?
- (c) Why would someone destroy one building when they really wanted to destroy another?

Solution (R. Rotten): Alright! I can see that I will have to teach you how to be villains!

- (a) Now listen closely. Here's a little lesson in trickery. This is going down in history. If you wanna be a Villain Number One, you have to chase a superhero on the run. Just follow my moves, and ^{sneak} around. Be careful not to make a sound! Shh! No, don't touch that!

Solution: Let n be an arbitrary non-negative integer. There are four cases to consider:

- Makin' pancakes, makin' bacon pancakes
- Make some bacon and I put it in a pancake
- Bacon pancakes, that's what it's gonna make
